

Connecting Communities Development

Introduction: In line with our commitments to people, place and progress, to growing as a responsive organisation and to our duty of care to clients, staff and volunteers, Inishowen Development Partnership (IDP) is recruiting for a new position within this growing and diverse team.

Main purpose of job: The role of the Connecting Communities Development Officer is to drive community engagement and development work with a view to increasing civic participation, health and well-being across our new communities through focusing on priority actions within IDP.

Central to this work is the value of: - • community participation and leveraging the capacity within communities • supporting individual and community engagement and participation • robust local collaborations • support for appropriate active citizenship, complimenting the work that we are engaged to do • training, education, employment and development opportunities as key drivers in creating self-sufficient vibrant communities • equality of opportunity and social inclusion.

The role will specifically seek to engage members of the migrant community and refugees in Inishowen to support them in addressing the issues that affect their lives; working with local community groups and county structures to raise awareness and address the challenges facing new communities and in responding to problems and needs through empowerment and active participation. The role will support network development, creative responses and collaboration, and explore opportunities for peer support and learning. This will help to mobilise resources and communities and influence systems. It will support the development of enhanced relationships among stakeholders serving as a catalyst for changing policies, delivering programmes and highlighting best practice. It is about supporting communities to bring about social change and improve quality of life.

As an agile, dynamic, and progressive organisation, IDP is adapting their team to ensure we underpin our people-centered approach. We are looking for a dedicated and experienced person to apply a broad range of community development and engagement processes and practices to assist the IDP team and the community to identify and implement local priorities. To be successful as a Connecting Communities Development Officer, you should be knowledgeable of community development, key issues and challenges facing marginalized and disadvantaged communities, and community engagement principles and practice. Ultimately, you should be able to build rapport with groups and agencies alike and demonstrate excellent organisational, analytical, and problem-solving skills.

Although based in Buncrana IDP, the role includes an outreach service covering the wider Inishowen area. Reporting to the Joint CEO, this role will work with our Community Development Support Team, ensuring that emerging needs are identified and planned for and client needs are responded to in a timely and effective way.

Duties: The Connecting Communities Development Officer's is expected to have direct input across a range of programme activities. Key duties and responsibilities will include:

- Develop community development initiatives that promote links and builds relationships between the migrant, refugee communities and the wider community.
- Support local communities to engage in collective action and to support current groups and when identified the establishment of new, representative local community groups.
- Assist skills development of potential target group community leaders, volunteers, community groups and encourage engagement/membership of local resident groups.
- Event planning, preparation and coordination – e.g., cultural awareness events; diversity awareness training, anti-racism and discrimination awareness, etc.
- Develop professional working relationships with all target group members, stakeholders, and collaborative partners and maintain regular communication throughout the development lifecycle.
- Coordinate, codesign and leverage community education, adult education, and training programmes, with a specific focus on language and employment supports.
- Collaborate with other programmes within IDP and external agencies and public bodies to ensure clients are aware of, and have access to, all available supports.
- Play an advocacy role with respect to maximizing opportunities and access to relevant supports and services.
- Enable participants to develop skills, including English language skills, employment, educational and cultural.
- Updating and maintaining accurate records and reports for Management, Board and Funding Bodies including appropriate and up-to-date records of all project activities, client and group records in adherence with user and data protection policies.
- Make internal referrals to relevant SICAP supports and other IDP programmes and to wider external programme supports and providers.
- Individually and as part of the wider IDP staff team, build well-grounded networks into local agencies.
- Source additional leveraged funding to support the development of community integration programmes
- Maintain caseload records and build a case-study portfolio and general statistical information.
- Undertake other administrative duties and responsibilities as may be assigned in agreement with the CEO and/or Board of Management.

Person Specifications: This role will require a wide range of abilities and skills including: -

- Commitment to and understanding of working within a community organisation in an inclusive manner.
- High motivation, positive disposition, and flexible attitude in response to organisational change and development
- Methodical and diligent with outstanding planning abilities
- An ability to think strategically about the information that will help stakeholders make informed decisions and to communicate the value of this information effectively.
- A positive motivational mindset and an inclination for problem-solving.
- Ability to write comprehensive documents with a sharp attention to accuracy and detail.
- A team player.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills.

Experience and knowledge of: -

- Experience in working with migrants, refugees and other vulnerable groups and an understanding of the challenges faced by these target groups.
- Experience in working with communities and groups to bring about positive change.
